Political Disturbances Gut Short Emperor William's Voyage.

Genericated Probable and New York Associated Press BRILLIN, July 12.—Emperor William, on arriving at Fide-on-the-Faufjord, on Tuesday, sent a dispatch to Chancellor von Caprivi announcing his intention to shorten his voyage and return to Kiel on July 21. The gravity of the situation in the Balkans and in the increased prospect of trouble with France over the English agreement, makes necessary the emperor's presence and keeps both the chancellor and Minister Mignel from taking a holiday. Although the prospects of a permanent peace in Europe begin to appear doubtful, official confidence remains strong in the continuance of repose for some time to come. Even the probable ablitation of Prince Feedinand with a sequent revolution in Bulgaria will not be allowed to involve an immediate European war. The maintainance of peace according to the official view is certain until after the conference between Emperor William and the czar at St. Petersburg, when the resources of diplomacy will be exhausted in a final effort to harmonize Austrian and Russian interests in the Balkan peninsula.

The Berliner Tagellant has a relegram from Rome which purports to give information drawn from Prime Minister Crispi. In this, it is assessed that the crar's advisers, considering the time apportune, insist upon war. The chiefs of the driebund, the telegram ands, will make united efforts to maintain peace. They have the gravest and most urgent reasons for preparing for eventualities.

Mr. Phelps, the American minister, has received from Hamburg a copy of a petition which has been sent to Chancellor Von Caprivi, and which bears the signature of various steamship companies and leading firms and corporations. The petitioners ask for the rescinding of the prohibition against American pork. They arrest that Germany can not produce enough pork to satisfy her own wants. The price of pork has riseu so enormously that our people can not buy it. The wholesale price of German salted bacon is 130 marks per 100 kilograms, while American bacon can pay a duty and be sold at Simarks. Pork imported from neighboring states, although bringing higher prices, is not as good as the American article. When the prohibition was concreted, there was no official examination of pork in America, whereas the United States government is now ready to make whatever inspection. enument is now ready to make whatever inspection Germany may ask. When American peak has been allowed to enter the country, no case of disease has ever been traced to its use. If the American inspection should be insufficient, there could be one made in Germany as well. The petition concludes by asking that the American pork be allowed, in the interests of the working classes, of the commerce and of the shipping of Germany.

The most marked sign of the reaction against the violent prejudice which drote M. Jules Ferry from active politics has been shown in the department of Vosgrs, where the man who defeated M. Ferry in the election for members of the chamber of deputies, by arousing the old prejudice against him relative to the Tonquin affair, was himself defeated by a personal friend of M. Ferry. It is believed that this will pave the way for M. Ferry's early return to active politics. It was so unpopular in 1880 that his bust at the Paris exposition was re moved owing to the agitation against him and the threats that it would be mutilated in spite of the guard.

El Paso, Tex., July 12.—The following particulars in regard to the battle between the rival mayors of Ysieta and their adherents, have been received here. It is learned that the trouble originated in this way: Benigno Alderette, as mayor of Ysieta had charge of the acceptia and had a couple of men cleaning it out when Gaal sent a posse of armed men to drive Alderette's men from their work. Gaal claimed that he was mayor and unt his own men ette's men from their work. Gaal claimed that he was mayor and put his own men to work and refused to discontinue when ordered by Alderette to do so. The mayor then secured a warrant for the arrest of Gaal to place him under a peace bond and deter him from further interference with the accequia. Gaal summoned his armed followers around him and refused to be arrested and the fight follower.

The fight terminated in a peaceful surrender at daylight to a sheriff's posse, (Saal, who resisted arrest, can not be found. Sixteen men have been arrested and brought here to the county jail. It turns out that only one man was killed, a Mexican of Mayor Alderette's posse, who tried to arrest Gaaf. Another had a slight wound in the head.

On his person were found a gold ring and gold watch taken from the mail sacks and about $100 in money. He was taken to the jail at Dickinson and kept there for a few days and for greater safety romoved by the inspector to Fargo. It is believed now the rubbers got away with about $50,000.

Believing that part of the money at least and been conscaled by the explaned robber or rather thrown away during his short flight after discovery, Postoffice Inspector Watkins left this city Friday morning hast, taking one assistant with him. On Sunday morning his the reached the spat on the bank of the stream where they cuptured their man. Recent rains had caused a hency growth of grass and the wind had been sweeping over the place since June 10, but after a day's search over the space of four acres the shrewdness of the inspector was rewarded by finding in tornabilits and ranged pleese a large amount of currency. One roll contained a big bill, $1,000. There were found aumorrous tens and twentles more or less mutilated, in the printile grass knee deep. Delights of Swimming. Swimming is an athletic exercise that has not received sufficient attention from those interested in physical culture for women. It is not only a dalightful amuse-ment, but said to be far more valuable in expanding the chest and developing the muscles than almost any gymnastic exer-cise that is known. Comparatively few women, even among those who at the seaside enjoy a daily bath in the surf, are expert swimmers. They are entirely at the mercy of circumstances in case of sudden danger. The expert swimmer learns to be courageous and energetic in the water, and her skill may be the means of saving her own life or other lives.
